

Cornwall Council

Section 14(2) and Section 22(C) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 (RTRA 1984)

Temporary Closure of (Various Footpaths and Bridleways St Ives) Notice

Notice is hereby given that, on the recommendation of the Chief Officer of Police for Devon and Cornwall and on it appearing to Cornwall Council that it is necessary to mitigate danger to the public or damage to the highway (from incidents) that may arise from the hosting of an event taking place at Carbis Bay, St Ives, the various footpath and bridleway closures as listed in the schedule to this notice are to be introduced as specified and shall remain in force on such days and during such times as the appropriate traffic signs are displayed.

The various measures imposed by this notice will come into force on the 1st June 2021 and can remain in force for up to 21 days. The Authority are satisfied that the restrictions imposed by this Notice should come into force without delay.

Articles

1. Except upon the direction of, or with permission of a Police Constable or suitably accredited personnel authorised by them, no person may be within, gain entry into or passage within any part of those lengths of footpath and bridleway (hereinafter referred to as the restricted area) as specified in in the Schedule to this notice.
2. For the avoidance of doubt within this Notice 'restricted area' shall in respect of each section of footpath or bridleway listed in the Schedule to this Notice mean the entire width of footpath or bridleway and all land falling within the Public Highway boundaries.
3. Nothing in this Article shall apply in respect of anything done at the direction of, or with permission of Police Constable or suitably accredited personnel authorised by them.
4. Access to those lengths of footpath or bridleway specified in the Schedule to this Notice as specified in the Schedule to this Notice for pedestrians, motor vehicles, pedal cycles, horse riders or horse-drawn vehicles will be controlled by the Police or suitably accredited personnel authorised by them.
5. Vehicular access to those lengths of footpath or bridleway specified in the Schedule to this Notice will be permitted for residents who hold the relevant validation approved by Police, provided that such access is deemed to accord with the terms set out within it.
6. This Notice gives power to the Chief Officer of Police for the County of Cornwall to:
 - i. direct that any provision of this Notice (shall to the extent as the constable may specify) be commenced, suspended or revived
 - ii. confer a discretion on a constable
 - iii. confer a power on a constable to place or authorise or require to be placed, at or near any point on the footpath or bridleway specified in the Plan referenced in the Schedule to this Notice, such signs, structures, fencing, bollards or other obstructions as is considered appropriate for preventing the passage of vehicles or pedestrians.
 - iv. authorise the undertaking of works for the purpose of, or for the purpose ancillary to another provision of this Notice.
7. When Footpaths are subject to closure, diversions will be as signposted locally as required.
